Emerald Isle South-western Route I

Ireland will make you feel as though you're at home. The 'Emerald Isle South-western Route I' is an intense journey which will let you experience the charm of Ireland's most classic landscapes, delve into its compelling traditions and try its sumptuous cuisine, which is typified by smoked salmon, Dublin Bay prawns, the delicious Irish stew and the ever-popular classic that is fish & chips. This route is a genuine treat for travellers looking to explore Ireland and enjoy the freshness of its air at their own pace and without having to rush. It takes in historic places that tell stories of legends, kings, battles and heroes, lively cities such as Dublin, Killarney and Limerick, the first-rate hospitality typical of rural life and areas of stunning beauty such as the famous 'Ring of Kerry'. You will walk a land of castles, abbeys and monasteries that have been a source of inspiration for poets, musicians and artists for centuries. Awaiting you are countless kilometres of roads crossing emerald-green fields scattered with cottages (typical rural houses), incredible national parks such as Killarney National Park, expanses of intense colour and splashes of countryside, rolling hills, leafy forests, magical lakes and mountains draped in mist. Some areas run parallel to the sea, inviting travellers to explore quaint fishing villages, breathtaking beauty spots, beautiful beaches and steep cliffs overlooking the Atlantic. The itinerary covers some of the counties that best capture the essence of the country. Experience Ireland like a true Irish person by stopping off in historic pubs, drinking a toast with a Guinness and losing yourself in the rhythm of a live Celtic music performance. Savour every moment you spend behind the wheel as you explore one of the most beautiful corners of Europe.

Travel details

● DAY 1 · CITY OF ORIGIN - DUBLIN

Flight departure from the city of origin to Dublin and rental car pick-up. This fascinating road trip through Ireland begins in its lively capital city. Dublin is one of Europe's oldest cities and strikes a perfect balance between a great medieval and Georgian heritage and modern buildings, fine cafes, cutting-edge restaurants and interesting art and design attractions. You'll have the rest of the day free to get a feel for the city; enjoy the local cuisine and try an authentic Irish coffee, walk in the footsteps of important writers such as James Joyce and Oscar Wilde, and discover unique places like Dublin Castle, the legendary Trinity College, the historic Christ Church and St. Patrick Cathedrals and the Bank of Ireland... At Dublin City Hall, the old Royal Exchange, you can take in the 'Story of the Capital' exhibition, a fascinating display which will immerse you in the city's history. In the late afternoon, cross the Ha'penny Bridge and explore the fabled Temple Bar area on the banks of the River Liffey. Check out the nightlife of this universal city by popping into its historic pubs and savouring a dark and bitter Guinness beer. Overnight stay in Dublin.

● DAY 2 · DUBLIN - KILDARE / IRISH NATIONAL STUDD & GARDENS - TIPPERARY/ROCK OF CASHEL - KILLARNEY (RING OF KERRY)

After enjoying a typical Irish breakfast we'll continue uncovering the charms of this astonishing city. Of Viking origin and with an intense history, today it's one of the most "chic" cities in Europe. . We'll leave behind its urban charm, shops and boutiques, green parks and elegant architecture to take the wheel and explore the southwest of the beautiful Emerald Isle. Our route, a genuine delight for lovers of driving, will wind through natural landscapes of outstanding beauty. After a visit to the Irish National Stud & Japanese Gardens in the stylish County Kildare, we'll set off for County Tipperary, otherwise known as Ireland's Golden Valley, where travellers can explore ancient heritage sites and rolling landscapes scattered with lakes, mountains and valleys. There we will see the Rock of Cashel, the ancient seat of the kings of Munster and one of the country's most visited historical sites. Standing on an imposing rock, this holy place is a medieval masterpiece and an enduring symbol of Irish history. Our last stop will be Killarney, one of the most tourist-friendly towns in the south. Located between spectacular mountains and lakes, it's famous for its unique natural charm. Overnight stay in Killarney.

● DAY 3 · RING OF KERRY (KILLARNEY - KILLORGLIN - CAHERSIVEEN - WATERVILLE - DERRYNANE - SNEEM - KILLARNEY)

We'll now go to explore the compelling Ring of Kerry, one of the most picturesque and attractive tourist routes that can be done by car. Awaiting us is a circular route beginning and ending in Killarney and which combines boundless natural beauty with sumptuous cuisine and a sense of immersion in the region's curious heritage. The locals say that these lands enjoy some of the best weather that the country has to offer. Our driving route covers hundreds of kilometres of road running parallel to the sea between a series of emerald-green fields, cottages, national parks, quaint fishing villages, breathtaking viewpoints over the Atlantic, landscapes scattered with castles, abbeys and monasteries, beautiful beaches and mountains draped in mist... Set off and, on the way to Killorglin, contemplate the awe-inspiring MacGillycuddy's Reeks mountain range. The route will take you along the attractive Atlantic coastline and through the charming towns and villages of Cahersiveen, Waterville and Derrynane. Awaiting you will be truly photogenic sights, such as the view of Skellig Michael rising up out of the Atlantic. On the way to Sneem, we recommend stopping at the beautiful Derrynane Beach and Staigue Fort. End this intense day by tucking into the excellent seafood on offer in the region and having a drink in Killarney's traditional pubs. Overnight stay in Killarney.

● DAY 4 · KILLARNEY - KILLARNEY NATIONAL PARK - LIMERICK - DUBLIN

Today we'll round off our trip to Killarney with a visit to its famous National Park, a magical place inviting you to get away from it all and let your imagination run free. Tucked away amongst its bucolic landscapes are architectural wonders such as Ross Castle and Muckross House, as well as special vantage points such as Ladies View. The wonderful combination of forests, mountains, waterfalls and lakes defines this, one of the most extraordinary natural areas in the entire country. The highest mountains in Ireland are here! We'll leave this natural oasis to head for the city of Limerick, located in the county of the same name around 110 kilometres away.

Founded by the Vikings in the 9th century, visitors to the city are met with a lively atmosphere and appetising cuisine that they can enjoy both in restaurants and markets, one of which is the Milk Market. Declared Ireland's first National City of Culture in 2014, it boasts a wealth of culture with gems such as the Hunt Museum, the Limerick City Gallery of Art, beautiful Georgian architecture and rugby-loving locals. Stroll around King's Island, the city's medieval heart, and visit King John's Castle, one of the best preserved in the country. Eight hundred years old and with unsurpassable views over the River Shannon, this fortress tells tales of history and the dramatic siege of the city in 1690.

Upon our return to Dublin, we'll experience its nightlife. A fun way to end an intense and unforgettable trip.

Overnight stay in Dublin.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- The proposed excursions and tours for each day are purely suggestions, as you can tailor the trip to suit your times, tastes and needs.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- To pick up your rental car, you'll need a credit (not debit) card in the name of the person who made the booking, who must also be the named driver of the vehicle.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.

- This itinerary has been developed in collaboration with the Irish Tourist Office.
