

US and French Polynesia, 11 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

Los Angeles and Tahiti

Stuck in popular imagination with a photogenic star pose and gestures. So that's how we get to know Los Angeles, even before we have been. Referring to all levels, great, hateful, tolerant, brash and absolutely essential. Meretriz of culture, popcorn dispenser and wonderful moments in the light of the big screen. Here everything is possible because everything has happened, from motels with frayed carpets and VIP hotels. Where the blonde waitresses hide a dream.

Then we head to Papeete, a glamorous city that reminds us of scenes of the French Riviera through its passages. There we can contemplate the beauty of its beaches, the activity of its streets and local crafts, famously known around the world.

Important remarks

- Tips in US are a common practice.
- Generally in US the accommodation in the triple rooms have two double beds or one double and one single bed and the quadruple accommodation has two double beds.
- Consult the entry restrictions and additional requirements for people who have previously traveled to destinations such as Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, etc.
- Hotels may charge a Resort Fee charge that must be paid directly at the destination. The amount can vary between approximately $15 and $65 per room per night. This charge is indicative and may be modified depending on the establishment's policy.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- Triple rooms in Oceania are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.

- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
