Fuerteventura and Gran Canaria

Discover Fuerteventura, known as "the tranquil island". The second largest island in the Canaries archipelago offers truly picturesque landscapes such as, for example, the legendary Tindaya Mountain, which the island's indigenous people believe to possess magic powers. Fuerteventura has 13 officially protected natural areas. This island is a very exotic place, with lush palm trees, tarajales and aloe vera, which is used to make many traditional and cosmetic products that are extremely good for the skin. Gran Canaria is known as "the miniature continent" thanks to the variation in its climate and its flora and fauna. Everybody knows the Playa de las Canteras in Las Palmas which, with three kilometres of pale golden sand, is one of the city's longest beaches. Another of Gran Canaria's attractions is Maspalomas, 17 kilometres of coastline with a dune ecosystem covering some 400 hectares and which has been declared as a protected natural area.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
