

United Arab Emirates and Indonesia, 10 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

Dubai and Bali

Dubai is a luxury tourist destination in the United Arab Emirates. An ever-expanding city, Dubai's goal is to be a place where the rest of the world can experience the culture of the Arab world, and that dream is being turned into reality in the middle of the desert. Combine a visit to Dubai with Bali, an island paradise that has much to offer its visitors. Green paddy fields, ancient temples, unforgettable sunsets, local art and culture, ancient dances, attractive landscapes and the world's best hotels are some of the highlights of the island.

Important remarks

- As per new security regulations, all passengers visiting United Arab Emirates (organised or otherwise) must carry an identification at all times: either an original passport or a photocopy of it is sufficient.
- United Arab Emirates is a Muslim country and the month of Ramadan is of major significance to its residents. During Ramadan, entertainment and alcohol will be restricted in most of the country. The sale of alcohol will be restricted in many places, although some establishments will offer alcohol for sale to tourists. During this period, local businesses may also have shorter opening hours.
- Triple rooms in Asia are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- Triple rooms in Indonesia are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Please check with your international vaccination centre about the recommended healthcare measures in Indonesia.
