Santiago and Puerto Montt

Live Santiago night and day. In the center of the capital, where most of the country's civic life takes place, you will find La Moneda, the Plaza de Armas and the judicial and executive power buildings. With its various museums and pedestrian walkways, the center of Santiago is a spectacle in itself. Neighborhoods such as Providencia, Bellavista, Las Condes or Vitacura mix commerce, gastronomy and a hectic nightlife that you cannot miss.

On the contrary, Puerto Montt, located in the heart of Reloncaví, is a port city that makes a living from salmon farming, trade and tourism. Besides being the starting point of the Carretera Austral, Puerto Montt stands out for its great maritime traffic, receiving international cruise ships and being the departure location for ferries and boats heading to Chiloé or the Aysén and Magallanes fjords.
