

Northern Europe, 7 Days · Tailor-made, fully flexible travel

Stockholm and Copenhagen by plane

Come and explore these two stunning cities at your own pace. In Stockholm, over 30% of the city is water and a further 30% is composed of parks and green spaces, making it one of the cleanest capital cities in Europe. The stunning old town (Gamla Stan) is the city's crown jewel and has been preserved in extremely good condition over the centuries. This area, with its countless thriving hotels, bars, restaurants and shops, is the city's beating heart. Copenhagen, with the winding streets of its old town, the magnificent royal palaces, the avant-garde buildings and its more modern attractions, is a perfect combination of tradition and modernity. Get on a bike or roam the city on foot, bathing in its relaxed atmosphere.

Important remarks

- Take advantage at the first hour of the day to get the Stockholm tourist card "Stockholm Pass" at their multiple sales points, most Pressbyrå kiosks, 7-Eleven, some hotels and municipal tourist offices. This will allow you to free access to more than 60 attractions such as museums, tourist attractions, boat tours and unlimited trips on the "hop on-hop off" buses. We recommend purchasing the option of 24 hours or the 48 hours, depending on the time you have set aside for discovering the charms of the capital of Sweden. The price of this tourist card for the 24 hours option ranges between 645-770 crowns (65-75 euros) for adults and 323-408 crowns (30-40 euros) for children (6-15 years), while for the 48 hours it ranges between 845-1,095 crowns (85-95 euros) for adults and 423-588 crowns (40-50 euros) for children (6-15 years). It can also be purchased via the Internet. You will also receive a free city guide when you pick up the card at the destination or when you receive it at home.
- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
