Tenerife and Fuerteventura

Tenerife, known as "the island of eternal spring", boasts a pleasant climate benefiting from trade winds, the Canaries' cool ocean current and its significant topographic relief. Don't forget the Teide National Park. It's a must-see.

Discover Fuerteventura too, known as "the tranquil island". It is the second largest island in the Canaries archipelago and offers truly picturesque landscapes such as, for example, the legendary Tindaya Mountain, which the island's indigenous peoples believe to possess magic powers.

Fuerteventura has 13 official protected natural areas. This island is a very exotic place, with lush palm trees, salt cedar trees and aloe vera which is used to make many traditional and cosmetic products that are extremely good for the skin.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
