Over the next few days you'll be visiting captivating destinations and some of Europe's most beautiful beaches, as the destination is the family-friendly Costa Brava, the perfect fusion of coast and country. There are various options for today: visit the mesmerising cities of Girona or Figueres to explore the Dali Museum; unwind on a beach in Roses, where the little ones will have a great time at the 'Roses Kids' Club, a free service with monitors on Nova Beach; explore the landscape between the sea and the countryside on the Roses Tourist Train; mooch around the Museum of the Citadel of Roses, where you and your kids will work as a team to follow clues hinting at the fascinating local history, while wandering among Greek ruins and walls built to protect the area from pirate attacks; or enjoy some at-oneness with nature on a themed tour, a kayak trip or an e-bike tour around the Cap de Creus Nature Park, one of the most incredible green spaces in Europe and first created under the reign of Queen Isabella II of Spain. And if you're passionate about Dali's surrealism, you simply have to pay a visit to his house-museum in the fishing village of Cadaqués! And make sure you head to a local restaurant to try the excellent local cuisine, which features mouth-watering dishes such as 'suquet' (fish stew). Overnight stay in Roses.

You'll feel like a true explorer climbing to the top of one of its craters! Just five kilometres from the Garrotxa is the Fageda d'en Jordà, a spectacular beech forest that could have been plucked out of a fairytale. Choose to explore it on foot, by horse-drawn carriage or on the 'Tricu' tourist train, which will take you to nearby farms and deep into the true country life. And if you want to discover places brimming with historical anecdotes, amazing legends and underground water mines, sign up to a family tour organised by the Museo del Mediterráneo! Just over two kilometres away is Torroella Castle, an impressive medieval fortification where you take a wonderful spiral staircase to the top of its towers to admire magnificent views of the coastline. Next stop is the Illes Medes Nature Park, where the whole family can have fun on guided snorkelling or kayaking excursions, trips on glass-bottomed boats or outings on the Corsari Negre, a pirate-style schooner that takes you into the caves where corsairs would stow their treasures. Next stop is Calella de Palafrugell, an enticing village built around a beautiful bay dotted with magnificent beaches, rock formations and kaleidoscopic fishing boats. At the top of the village is the magnificent Cap Roig botanical garden, surrounding an exquisite palace from the early twentieth century. If you're lucky, there'll be an outdoor concert or a children's activity going on! Onward to Sant Antoni de Calonge, a medieval town perfect for unwinding by the sea or visiting one of its historic wineries. At Hipica Unicorn, you can set out on a horse-drawn tour of the vineyards (activity not included) while the little ones have fun at the local Children's Club, designed for ages up to twelve. From here, you can visit the Les Gavarres Nature Area or the Torre Valentina, a tower some fifteen minutes' walk away built to ward off pirate invasions. Then you can head down to Castell d'Aro and its beachfront district known as Platja d'Aro, where you can relax on magnificent beaches, have a go at water sports, watch pirate-themed theatrical performances or simply stroll around the old town and the castle... For nature lovers, we recommend a visit to Parque dels Estanys, a nature reserve home to about two hundred and fifty species of birds. Overnight stay in Platja d'Aro.

DAY 7 · PLATJA D'ARO - SANT FELIU DE GUÍXOLS - LLORET DE MAR - BLANES

More time exploring the spectacular Costa Brava, starting today with Sant Feliu de Guíxols, which boasts a lively seafront promenade and bike trails along the old narrow-gauge railway. Today's route includes mile after mile of beaches, all equipped with the facilities and services you'll ever need. Enjoy the sea with the beautiful Montnegre-Corredor Nature Park as a backdrop! That said, you might prefer to visit Marineland or Francesc Macià Park, in Malgrat de Mar, located about ten minutes by car from Blanes. The town also boasts a five-kilometre coastline where you can even find a 'beach library' and a Children's Club. Back on the road, fifteen minutes later you'll get to Santa Susanna, another of the most family-friendly resorts in the area. Here you can sign up for some fascinating guided tours known as 'Ship Ahoy' and organised by the Tourism Office, designed to showcase the history of defending the town from seaborne attacks. And then it's on to Calella and Pineda del Mar. Are you more a beach person or a mountain person? Here you won't have to choose, as both towns have award-winning blue flag beaches and outdoor activities and adventure sports in the Montnegre-Corredor Nature Park.
