Rome and Cagliari

This trip by plane offers you the possibility of discovering two of the most attractive and different cities in Italy:

Rome, known as "the Eternal City", a true open-air museum that combines the beauty of ancient times with the attractions of Renaissance, Baroque and modern Rome. Touring its historic center, declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, is to discover some of the most impressive monuments of antiquity. Among its classic treasures are the imposing Colosseum and the magnificent Pantheon, two of the most influential buildings in world architecture. Of course, much of the attraction of Rome resides in its magnificent squares, such as Piazza Venecia, Piazza del Campidoglio, Piazza del Popolo, della Rotonda, Minerva, and that of Spain, with its fabulous staircase. The list of treasures continues with the Vatican City and its Sistine Chapel, the legendary Trevi Fountain, the Castel Sant Angelo ... Because Rome is as beautiful as its treasures are endless.

The second stage takes place in Cagliari, a prosperous Mediterranean port since Phoenician and Roman times. The city has numerous points of interest, most close to its old town, among which are the Saint Remy bastion, the Elephant and Saint Pancraccio Towers, the Cathedral of Saint Mary and the Royal Palace. Among all of them stands out its imposing Castello, of medieval origin and which gives its name to the walled neighborhood. Cagliari is also the perfect destination to enjoy the sea, the sun, the good weather and nature. The city is surrounded by suggestive sandy areas such as Poetto beach, the Capo Carbonara marine reserve, in Villasimius, the Costa Rei, the bay of Chia and the beach of Santa María de Pula.

Live the contrast between Rome and Cagliari, you will not regret it.

Important remarks

- Explore Rome at your own pace and without standing in long lines with the OMNIA Vatican and Rome Card that offers free and skip-the-line access to the main attractions of Rome and the Vatican (the Colosseum, Roman Forum, St. Peter's Basilica and the Sistine Chapel) as well as allowing unlimited public transport access. The card includes free admission to the following points of tourist interest: Vatican Museums, Sistine Chapel, Basilica of St. John Lateran, Mamertine Prison, Rome Tourist Bus (3 days) and St. Peter's Basilica. In addition to the above you can choose two of the following attractions: the Colosseum, Roman Forum and Palatine Hill, Capitoline Museums, Castel Sant'Angelo and/or Borghese Gallery. Another option is the Roma Pass card, a tourist card that allows you to access the main attractions at a discount and use unlimited public transport for 2 or 3 days. In addition to the discounts themselves, the Colosseum has a queue reserved for cardholders, which will save you from its long lines. These can be purchased at tourist information booths and at all participating museums and sites.

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.

- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.

- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.

- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.

- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
