

US and French Polynesia, 13 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

New York, Tahiti and Bora Bora

Go and see a Broadway musical, spend a night in Times Square, walk back and forth on the Brooklyn Bridge, enjoy an afternoon of shopping on Fifth Avenue or feel like a broker on Wall Street, these are some of the things that you can only do in New York.

Tahiti is presented as a true paradise where hundreds of tourists from all corners of the world go to. This is the heart of French Polynesia and it would be a shame to overlook the bleak mountains and abundant waterfalls, unpretentious beaches of beautiful black sands and the distinctive Polynesian rumor that makes Tahiti a gem in its own right. And, in Bora Bora, you can visit tourist places like the Marae - ancient sculptures used in religious ceremonies - and swim with turtles, dolphins, baby sharks, rays and colorful fish.

Important remarks

- Tips in US are a common practice.
- Generally in US the accommodation in the triple rooms have two double beds or one double and one single bed and the quadruple accommodation has two double beds.
- Consult the entry restrictions and additional requirements for people who have previously traveled to destinations such as Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, etc.
- Hotels may charge a Resort Fee charge that must be paid directly at the destination. The amount can vary between approximately $15 and $65 per room per night. This charge is indicative and may be modified depending on the establishment's policy.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- Triple rooms in Oceania are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
