La Palma and Fuerteventura

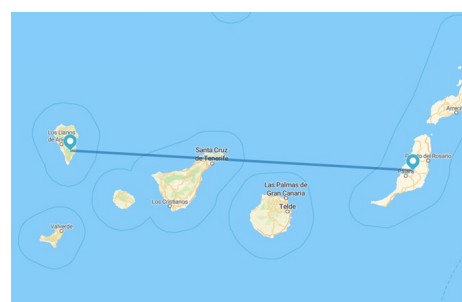

Travel to the islands of La Palma and Fuerteventura to spend unforgettable days under the warmth of the eternal summer that the Canary archipelago enjoys.

La Palma is known as "La Isla Bonita" thanks to its incredible landscapes, its imposing volcanoes, its wild forests, its beautiful beaches, and its skies full of stars. Not surprisingly, it is listed as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve. Fleeing from mass tourism, this island is a haven of peace and tranquility where you can enjoy its 1,000 kilometers of magical trails, its unique conditions for observing the stars and the rich palm-tree cuisine that includes chicharrones, mojo, chickpeas, kid, fried alfonsino and, of course, wrinkled potatoes. Do not miss the Route of the Volcanoes, the black sand beach of Puerto Nao, the Salinas de Fuencaliente, the Bosque de los Tilos and the colonial style of Santa Cruz de La Palma, its charming capital.

Discover Fuerteventura too, known as "the tranquil island". It is the second largest island in the Canaries archipelago and offers truly picturesque landscapes such as, for example, the legendary Tindaya Mountain, which the island's indigenous peoples believe to possess magic powers. Fuerteventura has 13 official protected natural areas. This island is a very exotic place, with lush palm trees, salt cedar trees and aloe vera which is used to make many traditional and cosmetic products that are extremely good for the skin.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
