Prague and Vienna by plane

Come and explore these two stunning cities at your own pace.

Prague is known as The City of One Hundred Towers and The Golden City. Visiting Prague is like stepping into a fairy tale where countless magical towers are home to patient princesses. The city is cloaked in an overtly medieval atmosphere capable of taking its visitors back to immemorial times and ensuring that they never forget how special a place it truly is.

In Vienna, the capital of Austria, Hofburg and Schönbrunn palaces are two of its most famous landmarks. A stroll through its old town will bring you back in time to the era when the Austrohungarian Empire was at full glory.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
