New Orleans and Miami

New Orleans, a multicultural city. With remarkable Spanish, African and French influences, it is one of the most attractive tourist spots thanks to festivals like Jazz Fest, Mardi Gras and the Sugar Bowl.

And Miami, an excellent tourist destination for sun and beaches. Its privileged location in southern Florida makes it a destination where tourists can enjoy a warm climate year-round. With an average annual temperature of 24 degrees, its endless beaches with waters of an almost unreal blue color, form a unique setting.

Important remarks

- Tips in US are a common practice.
- Generally in US the accommodation in the triple rooms have two double beds or one double and one single bed and the quadruple accommodation has two double beds.
- Consult the entry restrictions and additional requirements for people who have previously traveled to destinations such as Cuba, Iran, Iraq, Yemen, Syria, etc.
- Hotels may charge a Resort Fee charge that must be paid directly at the destination. The amount can vary between approximately $15 and $65 per room per night. This charge is indicative and may be modified depending on the establishment's policy.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
