

Greece, 10 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

Crete, Athens and Santorini by plane

Crete is the Greece's largest island. If we had to think of the colours that represent Crete, the intense blue of its skies and waters and the white of its monasteries and fine-sand beaches would undoubtedly spring to mind. The island boasts one thousand kilometres of white-sand coastline and inaccessible beaches on the Mediterranean Sea. Crete smells of earth and sun, of olives and fresh vegetables, of Raki and the sea.

With a history dating back three thousand years, Athens is a city brimming with archaeological sites, monuments, sculptures and even buildings from the Roman and Byzantine eras. Among its many attractions, we definitely recommend the Ancient Agora.

And, finally, complete your trip by enjoying Santorini, has beautiful picturesque towns that are undoubtedly worth a visit. In addition to its capital, Thira or Fira, there are other places of great beauty on the island, such as Oia, famous for its unforgettable sunsets. Others, such as Imerovigli and Firostefani, stand out for the most suggestive hotel structures, which are perched on the cliffs. In our opinion, Santorini is the true gem of the Cyclades.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.

- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.

- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
