Java and South Bali Beaches

Java is an island where volcanoes and archaeological complexes coexist. In this tour we will get to know these two sides of the island. On the one hand, we will visit the most important temples: Prambanan and Borobudur. On the other hand, we will trek to the craters of the two most important volcanoes: Bromo and Ijen. We will finish our journey crossing the Strait of Bali, from Ketapang to Gilimanuk.

Finally, a few days of relaxation on the beaches of the south of the island. Shall we go?
