

Greece, 7 Days · Tailor-made by car

Mykonos and Santorini by plane and with rental car

Discover at your leisure and with a rental car, these two beautiful Islands.

Mykonos is probably the most famous island in all of Greece. Its arid landscape and surrounded by incredible white sand beaches, typical of the Cyclades islands, makes it absolutely special. The island owes its fame to the beauty of the capital, the white houses and the labyrinth of its steep alleys that cut through the villages, zigzagging down to the many beautiful beaches. It is a very busy island, known for its inexhaustible nightlife full of fun.

Santorini, has beautiful picturesque towns that are undoubtedly worth a visit. In addition to its capital, Thira or Fira, there are other places of great beauty on the island, such as Oia, famous for its unforgettable sunsets. Others, such as Imerovigli and Firostefani, stand out for the most suggestive hotel structures, which are perched on the cliffs. In our opinion, Santorini is the true gem of the Cyclades.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
- To pick up your rental car, you'll need a credit (not debit) card in the name of the person who made the booking, who must also be the named driver of the vehicle.
