Florence and Cagliari

Perfect trip that combines the cities Florence and Cagliari so you can discover what you are most interested in in each one. Tour both cities as they have many places that you should not miss.

Florence It can only be defined in one way, and that is "the City of Art." Firenze, as Italians call it, is a small cultural metropolis that offers the visitor the best museums and art galleries in their respective fields.

The second stage takes place in Cagliari, a prosperous Mediterranean port since Phoenician and Roman times. The city has numerous points of interest, most close to its old town, among which are the Saint Remy bastion, the Elephant and Saint Pancrazio Towers, the Cathedral of Saint Mary and the Royal Palace. Among all of them stands out its imposing Castello, of medieval origin and which gives its name to the walled neighborhood. Cagliari is also the perfect destination to enjoy the sea, the sun, the good weather and nature. The city is surrounded by suggestive sandy areas such as Poetto beach, the Capo Carbonara marine reserve, in Villasimius, the Costa Rei, the bay of Chia and the beach of Santa María de Pula.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.

- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
