

Malaysia, 9 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

Kuala Lumpur and Perhentian Islands

As for the Malaysian capital, Kuala Lumpur, we can say it is the largest city in the country and one of the most modern cities in Southeast Asia. It has skyscrapers, a suspended monorail system and other cutting edge public transport systems who share the same space with an exquisite colonial centre of low houses; antique cars, street stalls and heavy traffic.

Finally, you will spend a few days relaxing on the beaches of the Perhentian Islands.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Malaysia are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Please check with your international vaccination centre about the recommended healthcare measures in Malaysia.
- Malaysia is a Muslim country and the month of Ramadan is of major significance to its residents. During Ramadan, entertainment and alcohol will be restricted in most of the country. The sale of alcohol will be restricted in many places, although some establishments will offer alcohol for sale to tourists. During this period, local businesses may also have shorter opening hours.
- Triple rooms in Asia are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
