Beijing, Xian, Shanghai and the Beaches of Hainan

Discover Beijing and be amazed by the majesty of the Forbidden City, the scale of the Great Wall, the modernity of the Olympic buildings, and the refinement of its traditional cuisine.

Located in the fertile Wei River valley, Xian was the eastern end of the famous Silk Road. The city gained international fame in 1974, when the immortal terracotta warriors of Emperor Qin Shi Huang were discovered nearby—one of the greatest archaeological finds in history.

In Shanghai, the contrast between the old, such as the Yuyuan Garden, and the cutting-edge architecture of the Pudong district will transport you into a setting that immerses you in an astonishing and fascinating reality...

And finally, the island of Hainan, also known as the “Hawaii of China”, where you can enjoy tropical beaches.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in China are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Please check with your international vaccination centre about the recommended healthcare measures in China.
- Depending on the return flight, the trip may be one day longer.
- On domestic train journeys within China, regulations stipulate that only one spray with a maximum capacity of 100 ml may be carried in luggage.
- In China, with regard to external batteries (powerbanks), whether travelling by train or by plane, it is mandatory that they are certified under the CCC (China Compulsory Certification) in order to be allowed on board.
- Triple rooms in Asia are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far the possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
