

Greece, 10 Days · Tailor-made including beach holiday

Athens, Crete and Corfu by plane

Athens is the capital of Greece and the country's political, cultural and economic centre. With a history beginning three thousand years ago, Athens is a city filled with archaeological sites, monuments, sculptures and even buildings from the Roman and Byzantine eras. Places of interest here include the Port of Piraeus, Syntagma Square, the National Garden, Monastiraki Square and, if you can spare between eight and fifteen euros to visit some of Athens' tourist attractions, we highly recommend visiting the Ancient Agora, the Choragic Monument of Lysicrates, the Temple of Olympian Zeus, the Acropolis and Kerameikos.

FOR COUPLES

ARCHAEOLOGICAL

Crete, Greece's biggest island. If we had to think of the colours that represent Crete, the intense blue of its skies and waters and the white of its monasteries and fine-sand beaches would undoubtedly spring to mind. The island boasts one thousand kilometres of white-sand coastline and inaccessible beaches on the Mediterranean Sea. Crete smells of earth and sun, of olives and fresh vegetables, of Raki and the sea.

And, finally, complete your trip by enjoying Corfu is an island and the largest city of the Ionian Islands, a natural bridge between Greece and the rest of Europe, a paradise of natural beauty, and a history where reality is mixed with myths and legends, for a lively and unforgettable vacation.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Europe are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
