

Chile, 9 Days · Tailor-made, fully flexible travel

Santiago and Valparaiso

Live Santiago night and day. In the center of the capital, where most of the country's civic life takes place, you will find La Moneda, the Plaza de Armas and the judicial and executive power buildings. With its various museums and pedestrian walkways, the center of Santiago is a spectacle in itself. Neighborhoods such as Providencia, Bellavista, Las Condes or Vitacura mix commerce, gastronomy and a hectic nightlife that you cannot miss.

Valparaíso is a historic port city on Chile's central coast, renowned for its colourful hills, bohemian atmosphere and vibrant cultural life. Its steep streets, traditional funiculars and panoramic views over the Pacific Ocean have earned it UNESCO World Heritage status.

Important remarks

- Triple rooms in Chile are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Please check with your international vaccination centre about the recommended healthcare measures in Chile.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.
- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
