After leaving Mdina through the Greeks Gate, the tour continues in Rabat, where you can explore the catacombs of the early Christians. Afterwards, there is a stop at the Dingli Cliffs, one of the highest points on the island, offering spectacular views of the Mediterranean Sea. Lunch en route. In the afternoon, visit the San Antón Botanical Gardens, located next to the Presidential Palace, whose façade can be admired from the outside. The next stop is the Ta' Qali craft centre, where traditional crafts such as lace, weaving, glass blowing and silverwork are on display. Finally, we'll be dazzled by the majestic dome of the neoclassical church of Santa Maria in Mosta, which is 67 metres high and 37 metres in diameter, one of the largest in Europe. Return journey to the hotel. Accommodation.

From the boat, we can see Comino, another island in the Maltese archipelago, where only one family lives. Visit the megalithic temples of Ggantija, structures that predate the pyramids of Egypt. Afterwards, visit the medieval citadel of Victoria (Rabat) and stop at Xlendi Bay and Dwejra Bay, both of stunning natural beauty, where you will find Fungus Rock, an islet connected to the mainland by a strip of land. Gozo is renowned for its handicrafts, handmade lace and embroidered garments.
