Important remarks

- Triple rooms in China are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Please check with your international vaccination centre about the recommended healthcare measures in China.
- Depending on the return flight, the trip may be one day longer.
- On domestic train journeys within China, regulations stipulate that only one spray with a maximum capacity of 100 ml may be carried in luggage.
- In China, with regard to external batteries (powerbanks), whether travelling by train or by plane, it is mandatory that they are certified under the CCC (China Compulsory Certification) in order to be allowed on board.
- Triple rooms in Asia are generally rooms with twin beds or a double, in which a folding bed is installed to accommodate the third person. Due to the inconvenience this causes, we advise against using this option as far as possible.
- Check-in time at the hotel on the day of arrival depends on each establishment, but in no case will it be before 3:00 p.m., unless otherwise indicated.
- A credit card is considered a guarantee, so sometimes you will need one for check-in at hotels.

- Hotels usually have cots available. Otherwise, babies will have to share a bed with an adult.
- Consult the necessary documentation to enter the destinations visited and for transit in the countries where air stopovers are made.
